

2016-2017

Parent Education Series: Secondary Transition

This four part series continues for the 2016-2017 school year designed to enhance the knowledge and resources available to parents and transition age youth 14-21 and beyond.

The series is presented by Dr. Erin J. Grimm, whose tenure encompasses special education administration & supervision, state & federal initiatives on special education, and effective planning for the successful post-secondary endeavors of transition age youth.

Please plan to attend this year as this series continues throughout the 2016-2017 school year to network, gather resources and develop community partnerships!
