Don't forget to visit the Entrance Counseling and Master Promissory Note website at www.studentloans.gov.

In addition, you are eligible to earn up to $3,000, half each semester, through the Federal Work Study Program. Funds will be forthcoming from the Career Center. Work Study funds are not guaranteed and should not be counted on for your financial balance. Students employed through the Federal Work Study Program will be paid monthly based on the hours they work.

The RMU Grant has been provided to assist you with a portion of your unmet financial need. If you become ineligible for any form of aid, not listed above, we are required to re-evaluate your eligibility for all or a portion of this grant. Significant changes in financial need or a change in housing status can impact eligibility for this award.

Your financial aid eligibility is based on information you reported on the FAFSA. Awards are subject to change during the verification process, your enrollment status, satisfactory academic progress, athletic and other institutional scholarship opportunities, and the assumed availability of funds from federal, state, institutional and other sources. Eligibility and renewal information for institutional grants and scholarships can be found online at www.rmu.edu/finaid.

Your anticipated charges and aid are based upon the assumption that you will be a full-time, Undeclared Business major, living On Campus. Standard charges were assumed. A change in status or information reported may result in an adjustment to your aid eligibility and to the information presented below. Please note that Federal student loan eligibility, minus applicable loan origination fees, will be included in this calculation.

TIPS

After completing the FAFSA and being accepted, you will receive an AWARD LETTER that outlines how much the school will cost and what kind of financial aid package you will receive.

Schools format award letters differently, but they contain the same overall information:

- Cost of Attendance, which includes tuition and fees, room and board, books and supplies, travel and personal expenses. If some of these are not listed on your award letter, check the school's website or contact the Financial Aid Office.
- Gift Aid, which includes all of the FREE sources of financial aid that the school is offering you and that you're receiving from federal, state and other sources. Be sure to include any private scholarships not listed on the award letter.
- Self-Help Aid, which includes loans and work-study. Self-Help Aid is different from Gift Aid in that you must repay the funds and/or work to earn the funds.

Then do the math. "WHAT YOU STILL NEED" is the amount of money you are still responsible for after all aid has been applied. This is typically covered by family assistance, savings, private loans, or considering a less expensive school.

xl4 CONSIDER the Big PICTURE
 Multiply your results by the number of years you anticipate being in school.

* Federal Work-Study funds are paid directly to the student. They should not be requested prior to semester start, as funds are awarded according to hours worked, and are not guaranteed.

Direct Stafford Loans

- » Subsidized – no interest while in school
 - Interest will be charged after an interest-free, 6-month-grace period
 - 4.53% fixed rate for loans between 7/1/19 and 6/30/20
 - *1.059% origination fee deducted at disbursement
- » Unsubsidized – interest accrues in school and grace
 - 4.53% fixed rate for loans between 7/1/19 and 6/30/20
 - *1.059% origination fee deducted at disbursement
- » *Gross loan amount of $5500 will be $5441.76
- » Interest rate adjusted annually and capped at 8.25%

Calculating Accrued Interest

To calculate your daily interest accrual, use the following formula:

- $\text{Interest rate} \times \text{current principal balance} \div \text{number of days in the year} = \text{daily interest}$

Example:

Sara Student has a $2,000 current principal balance and 4.53% interest rate this year. Using the formula:

- $.0453 \times $2,000 \div 365 = \0.25 (~$23 quarterly interest)

What if she borrowed $10,000?

- $.0453 \times $10,000 \div 365 = \1.24 daily (~$112 quarterly interest)

Private Loans

- Nonfederal loans, made by a lender such as a bank or other business.
- Student borrows in his or her own name usually with a cosigner.
- Fees, interest rates, loan amounts, and repayment provisions vary by lender and are generally higher than federal student loans.
- Compare loans before making choice and read the fine print!

www.pheaa.org/paforward

Loan Tips

- Never borrow more than what you need
- Look at loan repayment calculators on studentloans.gov or finaid.org to determine what payments will look like
- If you're a parent, ensure you can sustain the loan borrowing (i.e. years, other students, own retirement goals, etc.)

DECIDE

Review and consider all options.
Sometimes the best fit is not the first school choice.

Determining Affordability

- Approach this process as you are buying an EDUCATION.
- Apply everywhere you want, but be open minded and give yourself options.
- Think in terms of yesterday's money, today's money, and tomorrow's money.
- Have discussions as a family.

Ways to Save

Dual Enrollment

Commmute!

ROTC

Plan ahead to graduate on-time!

Ask about a cheaper meal plan.

RAs

Buy used text books, rent them or go online to find them cheaper!

Beware of the 5 or 6 year plan!

- 5th year may cost 20-25% more than your first year
- Loss of institutional funds after 4 years
- Loss of State Grant eligibility after 4 years
- Run out of federal loan eligibility (capped at $31,000 for undergraduate students)

What should you do now?

Apply for FSA IDs.

Complete a practice FAFSA on the FAFSA4Caster on FAFSA.gov to see if you might qualify for grants.

Apply for scholarships!

Visit mysmartborrowing.org to start budget planning for each school choice.

Retake SATs or ACTs.
