

Congratulations!

The West Jefferson Hills School district is pleased to announce the selection of Marianne Neel as the 2011 President of the Pennsylvania School Boards Association.

The Pennsylvania School Boards Association (PSBA) is a non-profit association, representing 4,509 School Directors and the entire 501 Pennsylvania School Districts. PSBA was founded for the benefit and education of school board members and provides training for newly elected School Directors and various professional development programs. A Master School Board Member Program, developed by PSBA, encourages school directors to adopt a Common Code of Conduct, Standards and Best Practices.

Each current Member of the West Jefferson Hills School District School Board has annually adopted the PSBA Common Code of Conduct, Standards and Best Practices

Included in Mrs. Neel's responsibilities as the President of PSBA, is meeting with Federal and State Legislators to lobby for Public Education, which includes funding, Special Education and relief from unfunded educational mandates.

Congratulations to Marianne Neel who for the First time in the history of the West Jefferson Hills School District, has a Member of our School Board serving as the President of the Pennsylvania School Boards Association.

