

POLICY 206 -- JUVENILE HISTORY RECORDS

1. Purpose

It shall be the intent of the Board to fully comply with the requirements in Title 42, Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes Section 6341 regarding Juvenile History Records and School Notifications.

2. Authority

This Section requires the court to provide to the building principal of any school information concerning the adjudication of delinquency of any enrolled child. The building principal will receive the name and address of the child, the delinquent act or acts which the child was found had committed, a brief description of the delinquent act or acts, and the disposition of the case. The Statute provides that if the child is adjudicated delinquent for an act, which if committed by an adult would be classified as a felony, the building principal shall also receive information contained in the juvenile probation or treatment reports, prior delinquent history and supervision plan of the child, and any additional information about the child which is deemed necessary to protect public safety or to enable appropriate treatment, supervision, or rehabilitation of delinquent child.

3. Procedures

Upon receipt of information under this Section, the building principal or his/her designee shall inform the child's teacher(s) of all information received. This information is provided for the limited purposes of protecting school personnel and students from danger and for arranging appropriate counseling and education for the delinquent child.

Information obtained under this Section may not be used for admissions or disciplinary decisions concerning the child unless the act or acts surrounding the adjudication took place on or within 1,500 feet of the school property.

If the child transfers enrollment to any public, private, or parochial school, the building principal or his/her designee must transfer to the building principal of the student's new school all information provided and maintained by the principal under this Section.

Any information provided to the building principal or his/her designee must be maintained separately from the child's official school record. The information shall be secured and disseminated by the building principal of his/her designee only as appropriate within this policy.
