Dear WJHSD Parent/Guardian:

As we enter into the warmer time of the school year, we continue to monitor the weather and air quality in our school district. In the past, students have been kept inside on days designated by the Allegheny County Department of Health as a "Red" alert for air quality. These alerts are guidelines for action based on the air quality, but they are not requirements.

As a school, we value the importance of students being able to spend time playing outdoors, when the weather and conditions allow us to do so. At this time, we are no longer going to hold students indoors during days designated as "Red" alerts. If the weather conditions are permissible, they will be able to have outdoor activities.

If you would like your son/daughter to remain indoors on "Red" alert days, please email your building principal(s) and they will make the appropriate accommodations.
