March 23, 2018

Dear Parents / Guardians:

I think we were all caught off guard by this week's snowstorm and subsequent school cancellation on Wednesday, March 21, 2018. Normally, we do not have school cancellations this late in the school year and do not have to worry about snow make-up days. I have discussed what to do about the make-up day with the School Board, and we agree that the District will forgive the day for all students and staff, and it will not need to be made up. Our students will still receive the 180 days of instruction required by the Pennsylvania Department of Education.

We believe that Spring Break is an important time for students and staff to spend time with their families and get recharged and refreshed to finish the final leg of the school year. Thus, our Spring Break next week will go on as planned, and school will not be in session for students and staff on Thursday, March 29, Friday, March 30, and Monday, April 2.

Sincerely,

Dr. Michael Ghilani
Superintendent of Schools
