

THOMAS JEFFERSON FALL SAT COURSE AND FREE REVIEWS

Our test preparation partners at Goldstein Test Prep will be running several programs to help TJ students prepare for the upcoming October 14 SAT school day, including a full group course for new students and several free reviews and free practice tests for students who took the prep course in the spring. Please see the information below, and contact program director Mike Goldstein with any questions. Mike can be reached at 412-874-7645 or mike.goldstein@goldsteintestprep.com. You can also learn more at www.goldsteintestprep.com. As part of our partnership, Goldstein Test Prep will continue to offer a reduced rate for all TJ students and provide scholarships to families who qualify for free and reduced lunch.

Free Reviews for Returning Students

If you previously participated in the Goldstein Test Prep SAT course, you are eligible to attend free reviews and practice tests. Please follow the links below to register.

- Practice exams may be rescheduled as needed. Students can make up missed tests at a later date, or we can provide students with tests to take on their own.

- Students can sit in on courses at other times and locations in the event they need to miss a class.

GOLDSTEIN TEST PREP PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- Accolades – Goldstein Test Prep was recently selected by CBS Local as one of the top SAT/ACT preparation programs in the region.
- Options – Goldstein Test Prep offers group courses, private tutoring, and combination programs for both the SAT and the ACT. Every family receives a free consultation and ongoing support to determine which tests might be best for students to pursue. They also work with families to determine the appropriate number of hours students need to meet their goals.
- Elite Teachers and Mentorship – All teachers have scored in the 99th percentile of test-takers and have attended an Ivy League or equivalent undergraduate program. Goldstein Test Prep instructors are young, ambitious, and talented. Also, having recently and successfully traversed the college admissions process, instructors are in a unique position to serve as mentors to their students.
- The Right Approach – Students learn how each question type is designed to test them on a very narrow set of skills, specifically step-by-step thinking processes. By pulling back the curtain on the SAT and ACT, Goldstein Test Prep seeks to empower students. They also review every concept that students will encounter on each test. Students develop a clear system for each section and know exactly what to expect on test day.
